NIMMO BAY

TESTIMONIALS

The team at Nimmo Bay must be mind readers! When we decided to get married at Nimmo Bay we didn't exactly know what we wanted or how we wanted our day to play out. We fell in love with the idea of eloping in the wilderness and having our ceremony on a floating dock and from that small spark of a concept, the team at Nimmo Bay designed the most magical experience that perfectly married (pun intended) our desire for privacy to exchange our vows and a totally unique location that we will remember for our entire lives. I cannot imagine a more amazing place to tie the knot and I am so grateful that we trusted the team at Nimmo Bay to turn our vague ideas into magical realities. I wish we could get married every year!

Brianna & Ryan

Our trip to Nimmo Bay was nothing short of magical. It is sprinkled everywhere you turn. Surrounded by nature, submerged deep in the wilderness is a remote luxury resort. The incredible crew of 'yes' people are committed to making your dreams come true.

Each day we embarked on a new romantic experience. From private sauna docks in the bay, picnics in the woods, cedar hot tubs at sunset, relaxing couples massage at the falls, and a private dinner for two, our trip was filled with many one of a kind experiences.

To elope together (not without our incredible photographer Erin Wallis) was what we had always dreamed of, and Nimmo Bay was the perfect place to say I do. A helicopter tour filled with countless waterfalls and endless expanses of white sand beach with no one's footprints but our own was an exceptional way to spend our wedding day. Nimmo Bay and the outstanding people who make it all happen, created an intimate experience that was easy going, worry free, and filled with special surprises. A custom cake with champagne on the beach after our private vows, an unforgettable taste of the coast while taking in the sights and sounds of the natural waterfall from our own private room filled with rose petals and candles. These were just a few of the experiences Nimmo Bay has to offer.

If you're looking for a perfect, beautiful, romantic location to say your I do's, Nimmo is the place. Be prepared for an incredible backdrop of natural beauty, an unbeatable culinary experience and a team of people making your dream elopement a reality.

Stacy & Vin

When we talked about getting married, there were three things that were important to us. We didn't want a big, traditional wedding that we had to spend all year planning. We wanted the day to be a relaxing, intimate celebration we would always remember. We wanted something that reflected us and allowed us to have quality time with each other.

Nimmo Bay exceeded our expectations in every way.

We didn't have a plan when we arrived, but the Nimmo Bay team still delivered on a truly unique and romantic experience. When you let go of expectations, it's amazing what delightful surprises await. It was simultaneously low-key and chill, yet high-key adventurous and luxurious.

The day after we arrived, we went "location scouting" around Nimmo Bay to find a place to hold our ceremony. Within a 30 minute boat ride were remote islands with scenic mountains in the background, a floating sauna that could be transformed for a wedding on the water, and a lush, green forest for a Fern Gully feel. While beautiful, none of the locations felt quite right.

The image we couldn't forget was the breathtaking view outside of our cabins. The tide ebbing to and from the rocky shore up to our cabins with a layered landscape of evergreen trees in the background encapsulated why we chose to elope here.

We could see and feel the attention each of the staff members put into our wedding, from the handmade arch to the last-minute hair and makeup assistance. It's not everyday the chef is also the makeup artist at your wedding! Every department of Nimmo Bay's small team had a hand in our wedding.

We ended the day with a private crab boil dinner with a custom cake in the Cascade Room, just the two of us with some music and candles in the background overlooking the waterfall. The whole day was a magical way to get married from start to finish.
