TRANSFER OPTIONS

NIMMO BAY FLIGHT PACKAGE

We offer a Vancouver/Nimmo Bay flight package which includes a 1-hour flight between Vancouver and Port Hardy, followed by a 20-minute scenic floatplane flight between Port Hardy and Nimmo Bay.

This option is $1,999 per person, round trip and is the most common way to travel to Nimmo Bay.

DRIVE + FLOATPLANE

Driving to Port Hardy and connecting with the floatplane transfer is a great way to get to Nimmo Bay if you are looking to include a road trip and some exploring on Vancouver Island.

The drive to Port Hardy from Victoria, BC, takes about 6 hours. If you are coming from Vancouver, you will take the ferry to Nanaimo or Victoria before driving north and most people will spend a night on Vancouver Island on the way to and from Port Hardy. Our floatplane typically depart around 4:30pm, landing in Nimmo Bay 20 minutes later.

The cost for the floatplane transfer is $800 per person, round-trip.

DIRECT FLOATPLANE CHARTER

We can help arrange for direct floatplane charter flights from Vancouver or any other destination in BC. From Vancouver, the 2 hour flight starts around $6,600 one-way and increases with the size of the plane and/or number of passengers.

The flight is scenic and this is a great option for those who would like to avoid line ups, layovers and airports.

Please note: check in at Nimmo Bay is 5pm and check out is by 2pm. Due to our remote location and boutique size, this is strictly enforced.
